Nov 10	Please note that the church will not meet on Sunday in order to support the November Commemoration Service on Abbey Terrace – a wonderful service that unites so many people.
	An opportunity to join the Day Centre members at 2pm to ‘remember’ Nov 11
Bruce Rhodes	Trevor mentioned on Sunday that Bruce had passed away – He first appeared in Winchcombe in the 1940’s – dad having been made manager at the flour mill – a cradle Methodist he soon got involved with church work- employment took him to various parts of the country and he rose to become General Secretary of the Pharmaceutical Society based in London. Retirement eventually brought him back to the town and he lived at numbers of addresses including the Jacobean House and subsequently at The George. Bruce had many strong views which were often expressed in no uncertain manner- he was always keen to join in any debate! To be nearer the family he and wife Rev Kathy moved to Worthing some years ago- he was 94 years of age.
Rev John Beardslery	John was the Superintendent of our circuit for some years in the 1990’s – retirement took him to Tewkesbury and after a lot of illness, so gracefully faced, has finally passed away- he will be much remembered as a quiet, gentle person always prepared to listen! Service at 2pm on Monday at Tewkesbury
