PASTORAL LETTER from the Co – Superintendent, Revd Jayne Webb

Dear all,

As I write this we have left 2024 behind us and have Spring 2025 on the horizon. Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on 5th March and we look forward to the joy of Easter morning on 20th April where we will share again in the telling of that great event, Christ risen from the dead bringing the hope of new, eternal life. Also, at this time of year, the signs of new life begin to peek through the grey tones of winter to lift our hopes for the coming year.

Firstly tender snowdrops venture out, though barely able to break through frosted ground; and shortly after crocus', daffodils and primroses clothed in their finest yellows and purples, crafted from the most delicate materials, such that they bring joy to all who set eyes upon them.

Next come the tiny buds beginning to form on tree branches, gently and slowly unfurling as they begin the journey through vibrant, pinky blossoms towards the fullness of leafy summer. Soon they will provide shelter and nurturing for a variety of creatures, not to mention the environmental protection they provide for the planet itself. And who of us isn't delighted to see the newborn lambs suckling proud ewes or gambolling in verdant pastures.

As far as the manse is concerned these wonderful glimpses of new life also herald an invasion of ants, mainly outdoors though some do venture across the threshold; needless to say that these do not lift my spirit in quite the same way! In the end though I suppose it is all a question of perspective, I realised as much when I read a piece of prose entitled Meditation on the first of May by Isaac Watts. His hymns, prose and poetry show us the divine mystery of God in all of creation, even in the most seemingly insignificant creatures.

Here is an excerpt from his meditation:

'What an exquisite world of wonders is complicated even in the body of every little insect – an ant, a gnat, a mite, that is scarce visible to the naked eye. Admirable engines! which a whole academy of philosophers could never contrive, which the nation of poets has neither art nor colours to describe, nor has a world of mechanics skill enough to frame the plainest and coarsest of them.

Their nerves, their muscles and the minute atoms which compose the fluids fit to run in the little channels of their veins, escape the notice of the most sagacious mathematician, with all his aid of glasses. The active powers and curiosity of human nature are limited in their pursuit and must be content to lie down in ignorance.

It is a sublime and constant triumph over all the intellectual powers of man which the greatest God maintains in every moment in the inimitable works of nature – in these impenetrable recesses and mysteries of divine art'.

So as springtime unfolds may we rejoice at the signs of new life in nature that portend the greatest joy known to humankind - the new life for all in the risen Christ, and may you be richly blessed by this season of signs and wonders.

Every blessing,

Jayne

Rev'd Jayne Webb

PREACHER AND CHURCH NEWS

We say thank you to Ann and Philip Revill who have taken the decision to step back from being Worship Leaders. Ann and Philip will continue to support their church and we thank them for their work.

We are saddened to report the death of Richard Burnham, husband of Sue (Local Preacher In Training) who died on 27 January. Sue is taking some time away from her preaching duties and would like to thank those who have sent kind words. We send our thoughts and prayers to Sue at this difficult time.

There are two circuit services shown on this plan. The service, which begins at 6pm, follows the assembly where the business and mission of the Circuit is discussed. There are lots of exciting things happening across the circuit and much work to be done. We value the thoughts and wisdom of everyone to help with this. The assembly, beginning at 3pm, is being hosted by Cirencester in March (and is also on Zoom) and Cinderford in May and is followed by afternoon tea. You don't have to be a member of the assembly to come along and hear about our work, everyone is very welcome.

Details of additional services being held on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday can be found at the back of the plan. Please check with your local church for further information.

We thank all those Visiting Preachers who have kindly agreed to preach in our circuit during the Spring Quarter. Contact details for Visiting Preachers can be found in this plan, details for all other preachers are shown in the Circuit Directory.
